

7RLC 9th Annual Lean Symposium

SEPTEMBER 16, 2025 | 8 AM - 4:30 PM (DOORS OPEN 7:15AM) | WESTERN TECHNICAL COLLEGE

No matter your role, industry, or experience level—if you're ready to lead smarter and drive results that matter, this symposium is for you. Through engaging sessions focused on strategic leadership, team alignment, and actionable planning, you'll gain practical tools to lead with clarity, build empowered teams, and create momentum that lasts. Discover how proven leadership and Lean principles can transform the way you make strategic decisions and drive continuous improvement. You'll also explore how AI can accelerate innovation and prepare your organization for successful adoption, empowering you to lead lasting change with confidence. This event will challenge the way you think and equip you to accelerate transformation—starting now.
